

JPRAC

Journal of Pharmaceutical Research on Advanced chemistry
(for innovative research)

Publication Ethics

JPRAC (Journal of Pharmaceutical Research on Advanced Chemistry, for innovative research) is an open access and peer reviewed international bi-monthly journal encourages the practice of publishing of original manuscripts that make a substantive contribution to scientific research community. The submitted original papers should cover key research objectives as per journals specification. JPRAC has skilled editorial members and reviewers and those are committed for quality aspects to publish the articles delivered thorough JPRAC journal.

Authors should follow the ethical principles before publishing their articles and submitted paper with research work should be authentic manner, as the paper is open access for research society, hence author is responsible for future queries if any received from public researchers. The corresponding author should make sure that all suitable co-authors and no unsuitable coauthors have incorporated in the manuscript, and that all co-authors have seen and approved the final version of the paper and have agreed to its submission for publication. The involvement of hazards chemicals, toxic materials if used in research work, author should declare the statement for safety manner .All authors should reveal in their manuscript any financial or other substantive conflict of interest that might be construed to manipulate the interpretation of results of their manuscript. Authors publishing results from the studies involving animals or humans must seek approval from the applicable ethics committees.